

Missing Piece

Verse 1

I've been waiting for the tides to change
For the waves to send you my way
I see you, darling, but you pixelate
It gets hard to take these days

Pre Chorus 1

But we'll hold the line, I won't let go
'Cause I'll be there when you can finally make it home
And I don't mind, 'cause we both know
That we'll be fine when you can finally make it home

Chorus 1

Because when I'm in a room with you, that missing piece is found (ahh)
You know when you're by my side, darling, nothing can bring us down (ahh)

Verse 2

I remember happy wasted days
Summer's golden haze in our eyes
Lifting you above the breaking waves
Memories floating back to my mind

Pre Chorus 2

You said hold the line, I won't let go
'Cause I'll be there when you can finally make it home
And I don't mind, 'cause we both know
That we'll be fine when you can finally make it home

Chorus 2

Because when I'm in a room with you, that missing piece is found (ahh)
You know when you're by my side, darling, nothing can bring us down (ahh)
It's like when you're far away from me, I get lost in the crowd (ahh)
Because when I'm in a room with you, that missing piece is found (ahh)

Middle 8

Ohh I won't waste a minute when you're here
And we're finally in the clear
When every day is like the last
I just keeping holding fast

Repeat Chorus 2
